GREENSBORO N. C. Nov. 12.—18 seems from what Mr. J. G. Hackett, who was here to-day from Wilkesboro on his way to Raleigh, says that another election will take place in Wilkes for a member of the House. He was the Democratic cand date for the Lecislature in the last election, and alrough he ran 600 votes ahead of his ticket he was defeated. His opponent was a Federal officeholder and could not be legally elected representative, and a certificate of election was offered to Mr. Hackett, but he declined it. Another election, he says, will have to be called.

This makes two Democrats who have fused seats in the Legislature on technicalities.

There was something of a ludicrous acciden at the depot to-day. A man jumped from a moving train, fell down himself, knocked down a man with a gun named Sutton, and created general excitement. Mr. Sutton sustained a bad cut in the face by reason of the fall, and after he had the wound sewed un he searched for the m n who case! the to be two hours, in response to rallroad orders Brakeman Franklin, of Carey, came here to-day. He was the worst injured man in the wreck Sunday night at Morrisville. His neck and hands are badly scratched, and he says he is badly "stove up" in his back. When the collision occurred he was pitched by the crashing timbers of cars over into the field, a dozen yards away. He caught on his feet, and with such violence that his shoes were burst. The pieces of the car caused the scratches on his face.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., November 12. The steamer Alameda, from Honolulu, brings the news that the recent election in the territory of Hawali resulted in a sweeping Republican victory. Prince Kal-amianaole, popularly known as "Prince Cupid," was elected delegate to Congress over Robert W. Wilcox, the incumbent and Democratic candidate, by a majority of over 2,000. The Legislature will be almost entirely Republican, as fifteen Republican Representatives and five Senators have been elected. Prince Kalaniaole, the congressional delegate-elect, is a full-blooded Hawaiian and has in the past been identified with the home rule party. The result of the election, it is thought by Republicans, marks the end of the home rule party and a division of the voters along the liges of Republican sm and Democracy as on the nainland

One is it will relieve him as well as a host of applicants of further strain in the matter, and another which is suggested by a member of the Legislature is that that body desires to seek the aid of the commission in the framing of laws under which it is to operate.

So it would cause no surprise if at any time now the valued and interesting paper should be presented to the General Assembly. That ex-Senator Fairfax will be one of the members there seems to be no doubt. As to the other two, there is all sorts of speculation and while no one outside of Governor Montague's official family knows definitely, it would cause no surprise should they be taken from the following four. whose names have been suggested: Messrs.
